CORE EARNINGS

The following primary variables impact our operating performance: (i) the current yield earned on our investments that are not included in non-recourse financing structures (i.e., unlevered investments, including investments in equity method investees and investments subject to recourse debt), (ii) the net yield we earn from our non-recourse financing structures, (iii) the interest expense and dividends incurred under our recourse debt and preferred stock, (iv) the net operating income on our real estate and golf investments, (v) our operating expenses and (vi) our realized and unrealized gains or losses, net of related provision for income taxes, including any impairment, on our investments, derivatives and debt obligations. Core earnings is a non-GAAP measure of our operating performance excluding the sixth variable listed above. Core earnings also excludes depreciation and amortization charges, including the accretion of membership deposit liabilities and the impact of the application of acquisition accounting, acquisition and spin-off related expenses and restructuring expenses. Core earnings is used by management to evaluate our performance without taking into account gains and losses, net of related provision for income taxes, which, although they represent a part of our recurring operations, are subject to significant variability and are only a potential indicator of future performance. These adjustments to our income applicable to common stockholders are not indicative of the performance of the assets that form the core of our activity.

Management utilizes core earnings as a measure in its decision-making process relating to the underlying fundamental operations of our investments, as well as the allocation of resources between those investments, and management also relies on core earnings as an indicator of the results of such decisions. As such, core earnings is not intended to reflect all of our activity and should be considered as only one of the factors in assessing our performance, along with GAAP net income, which is inclusive of all of our activities. Management also believes that the exclusion from core earnings of the items specified above allows investors and analysts to readily identify and track the operating performance of the assets that form the core of our activity, assists in comparing the core operating results between periods, and enables investors to evaluate our current core performance using the same measure that management uses to operate the business.

Core earnings does not represent an alternative to net income as an indicator of our operating performance or as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities as a measure of our liquidity, and is not indicative of cash available to fund cash needs. Our calculation of core earnings may be different from the calculation used by other companies and, therefore, comparability may be limited.

(A) Depreciation and amortization charges for 2Q 2016 includes $6.5 million of depreciation and amortization, $1.1 million of amortization of favorable or unfavorable leasehold intangibles and $1.4 million of accretion on the golf membership deposit liabilities. Depreciation and amortization charges for 1Q 2016 includes $6.0 million of depreciation and amortization, $1.2 million of amortization of favorable or unfavorable leasehold intangibles and $1.4 million of accretion on the golf membership deposit liabilities. Depreciation and amortization charges for 2Q 2015 includes $7.1 million of depreciation and amortization, $1.2 million of amortization of favorable or unfavorable leasehold intangibles and $1.5 million of accretion on the golf membership deposit liabilities.

ADJUSTED FUNDS FROM OPERATIONS

We define AFFO as net income applicable to common stockholders plus depreciation and amortization, including accretion of membership deposit liabilities and amortization of favorable and unfavorable leasehold intangibles. We believe AFFO provides useful information to investors regarding our performance, because it provides a measure of operating performance without regard to depreciation and amortization, which reduce the value of real estate assets over time even though actual real estate values may fluctuate with market conditions, accretion of membership deposit liabilities and amortization of favorable and unfavorable leasehold intangibles. We believe AFFO is useful because it facilitates the evaluation of the performance on our portfolio of assets between periods on a consistent basis.

AFFO does not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with GAAP and therefore should not be considered an alternative to net income (loss) as an indicator of our operating performance or as an alternative to cash flow as a measure of our liquidity, and it is not necessarily indicative of cash available to fund cash needs. Our calculation of AFFO may be different from the calculation used by other companies and, therefore, comparability may be limited. Our definition of AFFO differs from the definition of FFO established by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (“NAREIT”), which defines FFO as net income (or loss) (computed in accordance with GAAP) excluding losses or gains from sales of depreciable property, impairment of depreciable real estate, real estate-related depreciation and amortization and the portion of such items related to unconsolidated affiliates.

AFFO for 2Q 2016 includes the impact of: 1) total impairment of $0.6 million, 2) gain on settlement of investments of $0.2 million, 3) other loss of $1.6 million, which excludes $0.4 million income from a JV equity investment in a real estate property and 4) acquisition, transactional, and restructuring costs of $1.2 million. AFFO for 1Q 2016 includes the impact of: 1) total impairment of $2.3 million, 2) loss on settlement of investments of $1.6 million, 3) gain on deconsolidation of $82.1 million, 4) other loss of $0.4 million, which excludes $0.4 million income from a JV equity investment in a real estate property and 5) acquisition, transactional, and restructuring costs of $0.5 million. AFFO for 2Q 2015 includes the impact of: 1) total impairment of $13.7 million, 2) gain on settlement of investments of $27.1 million ($0.3 million of gain related to the sale of 3 real estate properties in Dayton, OH, which is recorded in income from discontinued operations), 3) other income of $2.2 million, which excludes $0.3 million income from a JV equity investment in a real estate property, and 4) acquisition, transactional, and restructuring costs of $0.2 million. See reconciliation to income applicable to common stockholders.
